

This year (2022), more than 80,000 people (including children) will be diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin Lymphoma (NHL). (ACS_2022)

80,000
People

This year (2022), more than 20,000 people will die of NHL. (ACS_2022)

20,000
Deaths

Overall, 1 in 42 men and 1 in 52 women have a chance of being diagnosed with NHL. (ACS_2022)

NHL is one of the more common cancers in children, teenagers, and young adults. (ACS_2022)

NHL is the seventh most prevalent cancer in the US. (Thandra_2021)